CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT FOR AGISTMENT

PAYMENT

The owner agrees:

- To pay all fees and charges as agreed monthly/ weekly in advance as agreed.
- In the event that agistment fees or other fees are unpaid, the owner grants a lien to The Animal Company Pty Limited over the horse so that the horse may not be removed from the Farm until outstanding fees are paid in full.
- In the event that agistment fees or other fees remain outstanding for a period of 30 days, the owner hereby irrevocably appoints Wallaby Hill farm to be the owner's attorney to sell the horse at public auction.
- The Animal Company Pty Limited will give a written notice to the owner of its intention to sell the horse at public auction after 7 days.
- On sale of the horse at public auction the proceeds of sale will be applied (after deduction of sales commissions and expenses associated with such sale) firstly against all agistment fees outstanding to the date of the sale and secondly against any other agistment fees outstanding by the owner in relation to any other horse that the owner has on agistment at Wallaby Hill farm and thirdly the balance, if any, to be paid to the owner.

Damage to horse or by horse:

- The owner is responsible for any damage caused by the horse whilst at agistment at The Animal Company Pty Limited and accepts all the risks of injury to the horse. It is recommended that the horse be insured with a reputable insurance company against injury to or loss of the horse or damage done by the horse to property including other animals.

Dispute Resolution:

- It is in everyone's interest particularly that of the horse, to resolve all issues amicably. The owner and The Animal Company Pty Limited agree to negotiate, in good faith, any issue arising out of this contract.

Termination:

- This contract will terminate at the end of the agreed period or

- By either party giving the other party 48 hours notice in writing of termination.
- If notice of termination is given by either party, the owner agrees to make arrangements for the transportation of the horse at the owner's expense. If the owner does not make arrangements for the transportation of the horse within 48 hours, The Animal Company Pty Limited may make arrangements for the transportation of the horse and any cost incurred will be an additional charge under this contract and recoverable under this contract.

Disclaimer:

Please note that while every reasonable attempt will be made to ensure the horse's wellbeing, the owner leaves their horse here at their own risk.

I,understand all the information above and agree to the terms of the agistment at The Animal Company Pty Limited:
